LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JULY 30

EASTERN STATES

Mass Meeting in Chicago

CHICAGO, July 29.—The Liberal Republicans held their first mass meeting of the campaign in this city this evening. Speeches were made by Senator Trumbull, ex-Gov. Koerner, Liberal candidate for Governor of Illinois, and by ex-Gov. Blair of Michigan, from a stand erected in the open air on Market street.

The Fight in the Old North State

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Telegrams from North Carolina this morning say that the campaign drawing to a close will certainly be a Republican success. Democrats are alarmed and are trying to create the impression that large numbers of negroes have been imported from Virginia to vote the Republican ticket.

War of Races

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 29.—An attempt of negroes to ride on the street cars culminated in a difficulty to-night. Two whites and several negroes were wounded.

Tannery Burned

BOSTON, July 29.—This morning the tannery of Dorchester Guild & Son at Charleston Neck was entirely destroyed by fire; loss $35,000; fully insured. Two firemen were badly injured.

Japanese Embassy

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—The Japanese Embassy was handsomely entertained by the city this evening. Speeches were made by Iwakura and others.

Heavy Loss by Fire

NEW YORK, July 29.—The estimated loss at the burning of the Sugar refinery on Leonard street is $350,000. The insurance is divided among forty companies mostly of this city.

Miscellaneous Eastern News

NEW YORK, July 30.—The President arrived at Utica this morning, where he will be given a public reception and be the guest of Senator Conkling until Thursday, when he leaves for Thousand Islands.

A public dinner tendered by the Chamber of Commerce to the Japanese Embassy has been declined owing to the departure of the Embassy on the 1st of August.

CHICAGO, July 30.—It is reported that B Steiner, the manager of the Ledger course in this city, and lately associated with Charles Wydham in the management of the French band concerts in this city and elsewhere, decamped with a large amount of funds, receipts of concerts in this city and Cincinnati.

The weather throughout the West has been hot for the past few days.

The latest crop reports are favorable, showing that the yield of wheat will be fully an average one, while the oat crop will be unusually large and corn promises to be as good as ever before known.

The North Carolina Election.

NEW YORK, July 30.—A Times Raleigh dispatch says it is announced that last Saturday the names of two hundred Republicans had been marked for challenge there. Yesterday nine hundred and eighty three names out of the voting population of one thousand one hundred and thirty, were marked for challenge in the town of Kingston. In this number were included Democrats. The object of challenging seems to be to prevent a full vote. The Republican Committee sent messages throughout the State calling upon Republicans to appear and exercise their right to vote.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Great interest is felt in political circles over the election in North Carolina on Thursday next. From reports of special correspondents and other accounts it would appear that, while both parties are disposed to claim the State, neither is over confident, and the result will probably be very close. All accounts agree that the canvass is one of unusual warmth and that the aggregate vote will probably be many thousands larger than for years past.

Another Slaughter by Railroad.

BROOKVILLE (Kansas), July 30.—A passenger train on the Kansas Pacific Railroad fell through a bridge at Coon Creek station yesterday morning. Five passengers were killed and several employes injured.

An American a Mexican Prisoner

NEW YORK, July 30.—The documents in the case of Charles Thierle, an American resident in Mexico imprisoned four months by the authorities and subjected to other outrages, have been forwarded to Washington.

WASHINGTON CITY

A Debt Unexpectedly Paid

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The Secretary in charge of the Colombian Legation unexpectedly sent to the Department of State a large part of the balance due for claims according to the awards of the Joint Commissioners. They had been delayed in consequence of the failure of the Panama Railroad Company to meet their liabilities to the Colombian Government. The company having resumed payments the Government has resumed payments to the United States.

Losses by the Rebellion Being Adjusted

A special says that acting Secretary Richardson estimates that the damage to the Government in the matter of paying for captured and destroyed cotton alone during the rebellion and by the purchase of Confederate archives will not be less than two or three millions of dollars. Several claimants before the Southern Claims Commission for large sums of money and whose loyalty seemed fully established are now found to have been in the employ of the rebel Government, which of course, ends their claims.

From Geneva.

This Government has official information from Geneva of a satisfactory character in relation to the American claims.

The Vienna Industrial Exposition for all nations will commence May 1 1873 and close on the 31st. Our Government has as yet made no appropriation to defray the expenses of the commission.

Troops for Dakota

The General Superintendent of the recruiting service has been directed to forward to Fort Rice Dakota 150 recruits for assignment to the 17th Infantry.

The Pope has preconized the Bishop of Baltimore and the Bishop of Richmond.

GENEVA, July 29.—The Board of Arbitrators held a three and a half hour's session this afternoon. Nothing is finally known of the day's proceedings, but it is believed that the case of the Florida was under discussion.

Geneva Board—Method of Proceeding

LONDON, July 29.—It is reported that the Geneva Board have adopted the following method of disposing of business before it. The Arbitrators will next decide what principle is applicable to each case and by which it stands or falls. No definite amount of damages will then be fixed upon, but when the examination of all the cases is completed the tribunal will ... separate conclusions and agree upon the total sum of damages.

German News

BERLIN, July 29.—The Czar will leave St. Petersburg toward the close of August on a visit to the Emperor of Germany. He is expected to arrive in September.

MEXICO

Tariff Rates Suspended

MATAMORAS, July 29.—A courier from Tampico arrived this morning with city of Mexico telegrams to the 26th. The tariff increasing the rate of duties has been suspended on the frontier for two months, permitting goods to be imported under the old rates for that period on account of a suspension of business by the recent revolution.

Rocha has issued a proclamation favoring peace and amnesty to the insurgents.

Prominent revolutionists who have been refused entrance into Texas have obtained permission to return with their families.

Stages and mails to the interior will soon resume.

A Forced Loan

MATAMORAS, July 30.—General Rocha has levied a forced loan of $80,000 against the merchants of Monterey. The country was quieting down under the effect of the act of peaceful acceptance of the succession of Leadochada to the supreme executive authority after Juarez.

WEST INDIES

From Cuba

NEW YORK, July 30.—A letter from Santiago de Cuba reports several minor successes for the Cuban insurgents at Buena Quartaro, Barza and Guazo, and asserts that they are preparing to resume hostilities on a large scale.

The Spanish Minister in Washington was interviewed yesterday and denied the report that the seizure of the Cuban privateer Pioneer was made at his instance.

UTAH

SALT LAKE, July 29.—The first silver bullion from the Camp Floyd Mining District (the English company's works) was received to-day—heavy in amount and the highest in fineness ever produced in the Territory.

The danger of Indian troubles in Southern Utah is ended. General Morrow had prepared to use the United States forces under orders from the President when the Indians at once began to disperse and are now nearly all gone.

The silver mines sold to-day in Tentic brought $120,000—$75,000 cash.

NEVADA

CARSON, July 30.—The Maxim Gas Co introduced gas here for the first time on Saturday evening. It is pronounced a perfect success and will be used in the State Capitol and all the principal buildings in town as soon as pipes are put down.

Past Grand Sire Farnsworth delivered a lecture on Odd Fellowship to a large audience last evening.

The V & T Railroad Co are making every exertion to have the road completed to Carson by the 1st of September.

The theater is crowded this evening on the first appearance of the California Theater Co.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—A dead set was made to-day on all the stocks to-day, but considering everything the market held its own remarkably well. There was an evident combination to bear the market. The total sales at the afternoon Board were 15,240 shares.

The team drawing the famous flying bakery ran away to-day smashing the carriage and severely if not fatally injuring the driver.

The Fifteenth District Court met to-day for the first time since Governor Stanley's death, and adjourned out of respect to his memory.

The Republican primaries to-day called out one of the smallest votes ever given in the city. There was no opposition to the regular ward Club nominations except in two or three wards. Swift, Fog, Cole and Wilmerding are the men mainly spoken of as candidates for the Congressional nomination, but the delegates are presumed to be unpledged.

Ground will be broken on Thursday for the Clay street and Russian Hill Railway, which is to be worked by stationary engines.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—To arrive overland, this evening—William Shelden and F S Aiken, Portland.

Arrived this morning—Bark Contrast, 51 days from Hongkong.

The steamer Constitution, from Panama, came in at 10 o'clock this morning two days ahead of time. She touched at Acapulco and Mazatlan, and brought from the latter port $155,000 in treasure.

Last evening a Chinese gardener was wantonly shot at by hoodlums who were walking with girls of similar character, on the corner of Twentieth and Harrison streets. The would-be murderers have not been arrested.

Matthew Hughes fell from a truck on Stockton street and had his skull fractured and back bone broken.

A boy named Hughes was killed by a water pipe rolling on him while playing with other boys at the corner of Twenty-fifth and Mission streets.

Ex-Supervisor Smith has been appointed Superintendent of Construction of the new City Hall building.

Advices from Guatemala state that the friars now in this city were exiled under a law of the Republic closing all convents and monasteries and devoting the buildings and property not necessary for church use to the State. San Salvador has taken the same action. This is exactly the same course pursued by the late Juarez in Mexico. The exiled friars are to be allowed $25 a month pension from the Government for one year.

No confirmation of the report of the death of President Juarez having been received, prominent Mexicans are betting he is not dead.

Eight Apache, Pimo and Pago chiefs who have been East on a visit to the great father under the management of General Howard, arrived here last night overland en route to Arizona.

The Superintendent of Streets is engaged to-day fencing various public places, school and engine lots in the western part of the city to prevent their being squatted on by jumpers who are actively prospecting for such property in all parts of the city.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Jas. E. Dixon is on trial in the Municipal Court charged with grand larceny by appropriating to his own use $10,000 placed in his hands by G. H. Whitney, stock broker, who anticipated being attached by his creditors. The money was nearly all recovered from Chestnut, to whom Dixon had given it. Dixon was arrested at Corinne.

It is rumored here that the title to the township of Shelburn, Nevada, is to be claimed by Ben Holladay under the act of Congress giving him 300 acres at each station constructed on the old Overland Express and Stage line. An agent has been sent up there to take possession. No mining property falls within the 300 acres.

A smaller dividend than any had for a month will probably be paid by Crown Point this month, and this expectation somewhat affects the whole market.

Stock market to-day neither strong nor weak nor active. Sales in the morning board 8,872 shares; evening board 1,109 shares. Ely district being generally lower.

From the fact that nothing had been heard at Acapulco on July 19th, Manzanillo on July 21st and Mazatlan on July 23d of the reported death of President Juarez on the 10th, Mexicans here are confident that the report is a pure canard. There is a telegraph line from Manzanillo to the City of Mexico and another from Mazatlan, and the courier is only three days riding from Mexico to Acapulco, so that the news should have been received at all these points before the steamer touched them. The news has never been confirmed by dispatches via Havana nor any reference made to it.

The ten mile trotting race at the Agricultural Park to-day between Farrell's Sally Come Up and Whitehead's Herman, was won by Sally in 31 minutes and 20 seconds.

The Chinese gardeners who live on Harrison street, where one of their number was murdered by hoodlums last night, say that about a dozen young men and three girls came into the garden and the deceased, who had a watering pot in his hand, came up to them and told them they had better go away, when one of them drew a pistol and shot him through the breast, causing instant death. They then all ran away. Notwithstanding the number engaged in this affair the police have been unable to get any clue to the murderer. The deceased was over 30 years of age and a superior looking man of his class.

No new cases of small pox reported this week.

The Fifteenth District Court adjourned to-day out of respect to the memory of Judge H A Lyons, one of the early Supreme Court Judges of California, whose funeral took place to-day. The deceased had been in very poor health for years.

VALLEJO, July 29.—The contract for the buildings at the grounds of the Agricultural Society—$6,8[illegible]0.

VISALIA, July 29.—Last night John McClellan was found lying dead on the floor of his room. An empty bottle which had contained hydrate chloral, was found in his pocket. He was 35 years old, a carpenter by trade, and is supposed to have committed suicide, having repeatedly declared that he would soon be dead.

Deceased leaves a wife and four children, one of whom was born last night.

OROVILLE, July 30.—The trial of J P Underwood and Johnnie Dane for the murder of Constable Solomon Young on the 19th of May came to a close to-day by the acquittal of both parties. Dane was discharged by the Court. Underwood's case went to the jury without argument, who returned a verdict of "not guilty" in a few minutes.

THE BOYS IN BLUE

RESPONSES TO THE CALL FOR A MASS CONVENTION TO BE HELD AT PITTSBURG, SEPTEMBER 17

From a multitude of responses to the call for the Convention of soldiers and sailors to be held at Pittsburg in September, we take these at random:

E. P. Hill, late private First Marine Heavy Artillery, writes: * * * "I hope there will be a large attendance at Pittsburg and shall be there if possible. This Greeley movement is simply the old rebel trick of stealing our uniforms."

A. T. Decker, late Corporal Company L, Seventh New York Heavy Artillery, says: * * "In the campaign of 1864 I was taken prisoner at Cold Harbor, and was in Andersonville ten months. I weighed just ninety-six pounds when I came out of that fearful place, and I now feel no inclination to join hands with Horace Greeley and the rebels and copperheads who advocate his election."

E. L. Campbell, late Colonel Fourth New Jersey Volunteers, and Brevet Brigadier-General, says: * * * "I have taken no active part in politics for six years past, but the recent unholy alliance of our natural enemy with those who should be ashamed of the association, make me feel much like rendering such service as I may be able to do toward combating and defeating it. Please enroll me for Pittsburg."

L. M. Tuxal, late private One Hundred and First Pennsylvania Volunteers, says: * * "I beg to state that having been a soldier in the late war for four years, I most heartily approve of the movement and indorse the object thereof to the fullest extent."

Thomas Brown, late private Company D, Eighty-eighth New York Volunteers, says: * * Please 'count me in' in any undertaking your committee may think proper to commence in order to support Gen Grant and his Administration.

Wm Hemstreet, formerly Captain Eighteenth Missouri Volunteers and Brevet Lieutenant Colonel, says: * I have never held any civil office nor asked for any, and I am just as enthusiastically in favor of Gen Grant's re-election as I was for his first election. I think for myself as one of the people, and from the time I first met Grant on the mud flats at Cairo, in 1861, until now I have only unqualified admiration of him as a product of Americanism. I intend to fight his defamers, as I have from the first his enemies in front of him.

Wm M Perkins, (Ill.) says: * * * 'I hereby tender you the heart and hand of a high corporal,' desiring most earnestly to add my feeble effort for the furtherance of the glorious object in view, viz: the extirpation of the least and last remains of rebeldom from our midst, whether it comes from the Southern fire-eater or the Northern renegade. I believe that such results can only be achieved by the continuance in power of the present efficient Administration, and I am one of many who hold the opinion that chaos and civil turmoil would follow the election of such a vacillating office holder as Horace Greeley to the head of this nation.

Private C W Kilborn says: * * Such an expression in favor of Grant and Wilson as will be given by the proposed Convention must have its weight with the people, who still regard the wishes of those who for their sake and that of Republican principles placed themselves between them and all harm. The country trusted the army and navy then and was saved. Has its faith and confidence in them ceased now? It cannot be.

J. E. Morrison, late private Forty-sixth Ohio Volunteers, says: * * I believe every soldier and sailor in Northwest Ohio will heartily indorse this course. To my knowledge there is not one Republican in this county supporting Greeley. The Democrats are sore at the proposed sale to be made at Baltimore on the 9th inst. With Greeley nominated, the Democratic party will be divided, and Grant, with every sail filled by a favoring breeze, will sail over the course triumphantly and come to an anchorage in the White House again in November.

William A. Schmitt, late Colonel of the Twenty-seventh Illinois Volunteers and Brevet Brigadier General, says: I hereby inform you of my hearty indorsement and approval of a call for a convention of Soldiers and Sailors on the 17th of September next at Pittsburg, to ratify the nomination of our glorious leader U S Grant and his associate on the ticket, Henry Wilson. In the same month, September, six years ago, a similar convention met in the same place to condemn the attempted rule and prevent the transfer of the control of Government from the hands of the grand Republican party to those of the rebel Democracy. I had the honor and pleasure to be present at that Convention as a delegate from the great State of Illinois. A similar attempt in my opinion is being made at this time to place the country in the hands of those who would, if they could, have destroyed it. For one, I am not ready to sell out to rebels or to even form a copartnership with Democrats; therefore I propose to adhere to the principles for which I fought and stand by the men with whom and under whom I stood in the fore front of battle. Circumstances permitting, I shall be in Pittsburg.

Gen Julius White of Chicago says: Please enroll my name as one of those who favor such an assemblage, and if it be not out of place let me now express the hope that the men who defended the country in its time of peril will not deem our abandonment of the party for whose principles they fought, a safe thing to do at present, if ever.

A. M. Edwards, late Colonel of the Twenty-fourth Michigan Infantry, writes: The coming campaign will be one of great importance—as much so perhaps as any that has occurred since the foundation of the Government. The results of our four years of terrible war are at stake and they can only be secured by the election of our old chief U S Grant. In my opinion he has shown himself as great in managing civil offices as in leading armies. Our country has never been more prosperous and happy than under his administration. Our public obligations have been met even before they were due. All our great financial interests feel that sense of security and permanence which they could not feel under a Government presided over by that poor old vacillating demagogue, who has been on every side of every public question for the last thirty years—Horace Greeley.

General Rice, of Iowa, declares that the Boys in Blue will see to it that the Government shall continue in its present policy, and under control of its friends who preserved its integrity and its honor, and that it be shielded from those who seek to seize it for purely personal purposes and divides its favors and its revenue with its enemies.

LIVINGSTONE AND THE NILE

[From the London Times.]

It was in March, 1866, that the Doctor left Zanzibar, and, following the left bank of the Rovuma river, made his way towards Lake Nyassa. All this region is well enough known by the expedition of search which Mr. Young led for the traveler was traced step by step through Chitusa's country to the village of the fat King of the Lake, and was found, as all remember, to have gone on well and hopeful, from the spot where the lying Johanna men gave out that he had been murdered. These fellows deserted out of fear of a Mazitu chief, and also through the bad behavior of Musa, from whom better things were expected. But Livingstone, as we had heard, got a fresh set of porters together and struck off northward through the country, marked in the map with the name of Babisa, towards Lunda or Lucenda, and the Lake Tanganyika. In approaching Cazembe, which lies between the lakes he crossed a thin stream called the Chambezi, which is written on our maps under the name of the Lokanka, and represented as being tributary to the Zambesi. He followed this stream up and down with such pertinacity that the natives, we are told, thought he had gone mad, and said, 'He has water in his head.' But, nothing moved by their observations, he stuck to the Chambezi and satisfied himself that it had no connection with the great river of the similar name. He traced it through three degrees of latitude, and then made his way to Ujiji, whence he sent the last messages which were received. Again he started and explored the head of Lake Tanganyika, where he found the river Rusizi flowing into, not out of the water, and then again returned to Ujiji, he seems to have crossed the Lake Tanganyika and to have travelled westward. Marching he he entered a perfectly unknown land, that of "Manyema," and nearly perished of want and a fever, but, recovering, he pushed on northwards and reached a broad river called Lualaba, which he subsequently identified as the Chambezi by tracing them to a common point. Afterwards he followed this channel to within 180 miles of the Nile as already explored. At this intensely interesting crisis, his men deserted, and, having neither stores nor followers, he was constrained to make his way once more back to Ujiji, where he arrived only eighteen days before the brave American reached that spot.

Knowing all this, we can wonder no longer that Livingstone declines to come home to us. He has sent down his papers and collections, but on the 14th of March of the present year, Mr Stanley parted from the Doctor, leaving him indomitably bent on solving the question of those same tantalizing "one hundred and eighty miles," and also of "four fountains," said to supply a vast volume of water to the Lualaba, or Chambezi. And now, it will be asked, what is the upshot of these researches? The upshot—if Livingstone be right—is that the Chambezi is the Nile, and that the marvellous ancient river of Egypt flows from sources eleven whole degrees south of the equator, instead of half a degree north of it! No maps extant will suffice to pilot the reader of this strange, romantic story. Livingstone is a maker of maps, a writer of new names in the vast blank spaces of the Atlas, and, therefore, till we possess fuller descriptions and statistics, it is unsafe to draw any positive conclusions. But the general meaning of the narrative is that the great traveler has found an important continuous stream which, rising as low south as Cazembe, runs steadily northward outside Tanganyika, and carries the explorer, as we suppose, in the direction of the Nyanzas and Uganda country of Speke and Grant—to the North, and apparently not only "to the Nile," but "by the Nile." If the interval which Livingstone has gone to explore connects the Chambezi and the known Nile, that amazing river runs through forty two degrees of latitude, and the illustrious traveler has added nearly a thousand miles to its recorded course. In such a case it appears that the Victoria Nyanza must be regarded as but a tarn and the Albert Nyanza a mere well of the antique flood, whose veritable fountains run from far behind the mythical Mountains of the Moon! But how does Tanganyika drain? and where is the watershed of the Rusizi? and what mountains are there in the Cazembe or Basin land where the new and suddenly important Chambezi—a mere conjectural streamlet hitherto on the map—has its origin? Such are the questions which geographers will burn to ask, and some of them will say that Livingstone may yet find his Lualaba going off eastward to the unknown or northward to the desert. If it should, indeed, turn out that this fearless and unconquerable man has really traced the very mother springs of the mighty river, what a glory for him and what a crowning credit for the land of Park, Denham, Bruce, Speke and Grant! That the Doctor should turn back from such a quest was impossible. Refreshed, reinforced, and put into communication with us by the gallantry of the New York reporter, he will finish his business with the Lualaba or Chambezi river, and as likely as not, the next white man who sees his face will be "Baker Pasha," at present founding a new kingdom for the Viceroy of Egypt upon what albeit so very remote we can no longer call with confidence the head waters of the Nile.

WEDNESDAY MORNING JULY [illegible] 1872

The San Juan Question

Washington dispatches state that the final argument in the San Juan boundary case were submitted to the Emperor of Germany on the [illegible] the present month. Mr Bancroft's argument has been received at the State Department and is regarded as a paper of the very highest ability. It is not said to our Government that either his or the [illegible] conclusions can be controverted and a very great degree of confidence is felt in the result of the investigation by the German Government. It is not presumed that the Kaiser William will give the great mass of evidence submitted on both sides a personal examination but he will depute this part of the labor to able and impartial agents, who will make the examination and make a report to him. This report he will probably examine carefully himself since he is in person responsible for the decision that shall be rendered. No time is fixed within which a judgment is to be given only it is stipulated to be as soon as possible. The Rosario or the Haro channel must be taken since it was refused by the Commissioners in behalf of the United States that any intermediate channel should be taken as a compromise. The former treaty declared that the boundary should be the channel which separated the islands from the continent though it was first the intention of the negotiators that the Haro channel should be named, and it was an imperfect knowledge of the geography of the country that led to the change. The principal channel, whatever it might be, was intended. Mr Bancroft has been able to show that through the Haro channel there is a flow of five times or more as much water as through the Rosario. It is, moreover, a much wider channel, nowhere being less than four miles wide, so that vessels of either Government can pass through without touching the territory of the other, by keeping more than three miles away from the shore of the other's country. It is, besides, a straight course in comparison. The Rosario channel does not conform in any respect to that described in the original treaty, and is so narrow that cannon balls can pass at any point from one territory to the other. These are but a few of the facts and arguments on which our case rests. There has been a rumor that it had been decided already by the Emperor that the judgment should be in favor of the United States, but there seems to be no information of the kind in official circles. Such a judgment, however, has been confidently expected from the first.

Caught in its Own Trap

The Herald attempts a defense of its misrepresentations regarding the gift to General Grant by citizens of New York. In regard to post-dating the matter three years it says it did not alter the dates, it simply took them from another journal. It adds that it "doesn't care a fig whether the affair took place in February, 1866 or February, 1869."

Now let it be observed that the principal accusation made by the Herald against Grant in this business was that the subscription was made up and accepted by "the then President elect," within a fortnight of his inauguration. In order to make this appear, the old correspondence, which passed in February, 1866, was raked up and post-dated three years. But the Herald says it didn't do this, it merely made its own the false story and contemptible trick of a co-laborer in vilification.

When this transaction took place Grant had not been thought of for President, and his acceptance of the gift was no more improper than McClellan's acceptance of similar gifts tendered by his admirers when he held a high place in the army. Democrats thought none the worse of McClellan for this and afterwards to a man voted for him for President.

But the Herald says that "Gen Butterfield is the agent who got up the list of subscribers to the Grant gift and that he got his reward for what he had done by being appointed to office in New York." Here is more gratuitous assertion. Butterfield was not a subscriber to the fund and there is nothing whatever to show that he had any agency in "getting up the list of subscribers." The correspondence shows that the gentlemen who subscribed to the fund "requested him to notify Grant of what they had done." This he did, and this is all he had to do with the matter.

Another insinuation by the Herald is that A T Stewart, who subscribed to the fund was "rewarded" by being nominated as Secretary of the Treasury. The idea that so high minded a man as Stewart is admitted to be, expected to buy his way to that or any other position by a petty subscription made years before it was imagined that Grant would ever have any such "rewards" to bestow is worthy of such journals as the Herald. The very fact that this transaction took place years before anybody had thought of Grant for President, is conclusive against the Herald's contemptible assertion that anybody was appointed to office by Grant as a reward for his agency in it. The person who started this vile slander, which the Herald has repeated, endeavored to avoid all these difficulties by changing the dates of the correspondence from February 1866 to February 1869. The Herald blindly followed this guide made his calumnies its own, and hence has got into these straits and difficulties which it is now trying vainly to shuffle out of.

It is evident that a very strong anti Greeley sentiment is developing in the Democratic party. Some days ago the telegraph advised us that preparations for the Louisville Convention, to be held in September were making great progress. This information is corroborated by advices received by mail. Anti Greeley Democrats claim that this Convention will be largely attended and by many of the foremost members of the party. If all the dissatisfied Democrats were to meet at Louisville, it would be the largest gathering ever seen since the days of Napoleon's grand army.

A telegram to the St Louis [illegible] reports a surprising political situation in Georgia. Fourteen of the most influential Democratic papers in the State including Alex Stephens' Atlanta Sun the Columbus Sun the Savannah News and the Griffin [illegible], all dailies are against Greeley. The Republicans and anti Greeley Democrats propose a coalition ticket for State officers which it is believed will give the State to Grant.

The Daily Globe, a new first class eight page journal, has appeared at St Louis. It is a Republican paper and supports Grant and Wilson. Its proprietors evidently know what a complete new paper should be and how to make one.

Relying on the Senate

Four years ago the people were asked to elect Horatio Seymour to the Presidency. It was objected that his election would unsettle the results of the war renew political commotion and bring the country into great peril. Seymour's friends answered that there could be no danger. The Senate was Republican and Seymour could do no harm. This argument did not convince the people. They properly thought that in the safety and welfare of the country [illegible] would [illegible] happily it was [illegible] have a Republican President to co-operate with the Republican Senate in keeping things straight. Now again we are confronted with this very same argument that the Senate is still Republican, and will keep the country from harm in case Greeley is elected. Says the Springfield (Mass.) Republican: "Even if Mr Greeley could attempt any mischief and succeed in securing the sanction and connivance of the House there would still be the hostile Senate to block it and bring it to naught." Can it be possible that those who use this argument do not perceive that they are paying the highest possible tribute to the Republican party and adducing the strongest of reasons for the defeat of Greeley. The people will ask themselves why they should bring this danger on the country, which a Republican Senate is expected to avert.

Prominent Republicans who took a hand in getting up the Cincinnati Convention have repudiated Greeley. Among these are Judge Stanley Mathews, temporary Chairman of that Convention, Henry R Selden of New York, the first signer of the call in that State and the New York Evening Post and Nation two papers which more than any others gave character to the movement. The defection of Democrats from Greeley is also taking definite shape. In the Twenty second Ward of New York City a few days ago the Democrats formed a Grant Club and enrolled 150 members at the first meeting.

Immigration from the principal countries of Europe and especially from Scandinavia is pouring into several of our States particularly Wisconsin, at a very rapid rate. The Scandinavian, a paper published at Chicago, gives statistics showing the arrival of vast numbers of people of that nationality at Milwaukee each month. An association to aid and encourage immigration assists greatly in this behalf and such a policy should be adopted in Oregon.

A call is issued for a meeting of the soldiers and sailors of the late war, to be held at Pittsburg September 17th. It will be a mass Convention. The object is to give an expression on the part of the country's defenders in behalf of the Republican party and President Grant. Responses have been received from nearly every State in the Union. The soldiers have no sympathy with Tammany's candidate.

The story that Gen Sherman was "snubbed" in Berlin turns out to be a hoax. It originated with an upstart newspaper correspondent. Gen Sherman was well received in the German Capital and found no reason to complain of any lack of courtesy toward him.

The Financial Aspect of the Campaign

Horace Greeley has often censured the Treasury Department for not arbitrarily resuming specie payments. In a speech a few days ago Secretary Boutwell thus spoke of this matter:

For three years Greeley, through the columns of the Tribune, has advised the Secretary of the Treasury to sell the gold in the treasury and apply the proceeds to the payment of the public debt, thus saving interest, then to resume specie payments, or rather, these two bits of advice have been frequently and interchangeably presented without at any time stating which in his judgment is entitled to precedence in the order of events. But it can very well be understood that the sale of gold in the treasury, whether for the payment of the public debt or otherwise, would put it out of the power of the government to resume specie payments, that sale of gold in the treasury forcing down the price unnaturally, would stimulate imports from other countries increase the balance of trade against us, create an unnatural and excessive demand for coin and ultimately advance the price of gold for the benefit of speculators and gamblers but to the great injury of the country. I do not hesitate to declare that this policy, which is the only policy in any department of the government to which Greeley has adhered for even three years, would end in disaster such as the country has not witnessed since 1837, and if Greeley is pledged to anything it is to the inauguration of this policy if unhappily he should be placed at the head of affairs. The way to resume, is not to resume arbitrarily and without regard to facts but to place and keep the country in that line and condition of prosperity which shall enable it to meet all its obligations, and it is for this reason that the administration has believed it to be wise to retain an amount of gold which should be sufficient when the appropriate moments arrived, to enable the treasury to resume the payment of our national liabilities in specie without going into the market to borrow and without making any special effort for an undertaking which would certainly result disastrously, if the government were not strong enough to move free of all dependency of external aid.

Now take the following clear statements from the Cincinnati Gazette:

Horace Greeley though we had out in various forms as much as a thousand millions of paper money has demanded the instant resumption of specie payment by this placard over the door of the Treasury "Specie Payment is Resumed." He kept up this clamor month after month. He would have suddenly reduced the measure of values from a thousand millions to one hundred and seventy five millions the amount of the coin, and would have expanded every man's contract to pay in the same proportion besides subjecting the credit of the government to the shock of public bankruptcy by declaring a redemption of its obligations which it would be impossible to continue.

Since that Mr Greeley has continually renewed his attacks upon the Treasury management for holding a surplus of coin, and has repeated his demand that the Treasury shall precipitate all its coin upon the market and break down the premium on coin by one avalanche and then declare specie payment resumed. This is Mr Greeley's infatuated notion of the way to deal with the currency problem. He has that rashness in rushing into affairs upon mere instinct where educated and experienced financiers and statesmen would tread with caution that if he had the power which the Presidency would give him he would plunge into this experiment in spite of the advice of all his friends and all the business men of the country. It would be necessary for every one who desired to be on good terms with him to fool him in this humor to the top of his bent. His temper and mind are such that he would call any one a fool and a knave who ventured to differ or remonstrate with him on this course.

Since the Cincinnati nomination Mr Greeley has told interviewers that if elected he will carry out his notion by precipitating the Treasury gold upon the market and placarding the Treasury door with resumption. Thus we have the assurance in his peculiar character and in his long clamor for this course and in his recent declarations that if he should happen to be elected President his administration will begin with a rash experiment upon money and finance contrary to the opinion of the whole business world and to the most unanimous conviction of the count. And this is an experiment which would reach into all the ramifications of values trade industry, and contracts. No man who is in trade, with the usual proportion of credit, could be sure that three months of Horace Greeley's administration would not leave him bankrupt. No merchant however strong he may be in capital could be sure that his property would not be swept from him by the general bankruptcy of his debtors. No man who [illegible] make [illegible] contract [illegible] sure that the [illegible] control of Horace Greeley's experiments with the currency would not [illegible].

We say none of these could be assured against this [illegible] such calamities are what rational [illegible] must [illegible]. The very beginning of Horace Greeley's being is a jump of fourteen per cent in the value of the currency and a corresponding depreciation in all their values. It is the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] very trials [illegible] by the depreciation in his stock. [illegible] only the beginning. It is to be followed by such a shrinking of the currency as will be required by specie redemption of about 700 millions of paper money with not more than 175 millions of coin in the whole country. It would precipitate every bank into a struggle for self preservation in which its customers would have to be sacrificed to save itself from bankruptcy by a failure to redeem its notes in coin. It would force the immediate and remorseless contraction of a volume of 400 millions of bank loans. This of itself would precipitate general business into bankruptcy.

A young man named George Burchard about 17 years of age, was taken down at St Helens a few days ago with the small pox. No one is able to tell by what means he contracted the disease. He has been placed in the school house and is under the care of Dr Henderson with whose family he was stopping when he became sick.

On Monday last, at Oregon City, a span of horses attached to a wagon belonging to General Lovejoy were scared by the whistle of a locomotive and the driver George Yeager in attempting to hold them by the bits, was thrown down and trampled on by the horses receiving a terrible kick on the head, which tore the scalp open and also his side. He was run over by the wagon, causing severe internal injury. He was taken to the Cliff House and is under the care of Dr Barclay though it is a chance if he recovers.

The Salem Statesman furnishes a full account of how one man effected the financial ruin of another in Fort Wayne Indiana more than ten years ago and to get even the ruined man stole his enemy's little babe and gave him to some folks who brought the child to Oregon in 1863 the mother in the meantime dying from grief, and the father searching everywhere for the child. But a short time ago the father received a letter from the child stealer which put him on the track of his lost boy and following the matter up he found the missing lad with a family living twelve miles from Salem last Saturday. The child was only six months old when stolen.

The Burnt River Ditch has just been completed and the water was let in a few days ago. The main ditch is about 96 miles long and has a capacity of 2,500 inches of water. For two years it required the employment of from 250 to 400 men constantly to construct it. The ditch contains two flumes, one of which is 400 feet long and 73 feet high the other 250 feet long and 60 feet high. The cost of its construction has exceeded $400 000, of which the supplies amounting to $80 000 were brought from Chicago direct. The ditch is owned by a company of Eastern capitalists who are impressed with the richness of the mines of Baker county and their enterprise will doubtless be rewarded by a large yield of the precious metals, and will tend to a more extensive development of the resources of that portion of our State.

A correspondent at Oregon City sends us the following: Monday evening, between 5 and 6 o'clock, a serious accident occurred at the Canal and Lock Company's works, by which some 12 or 15 Chinamen and several white men were severely if not fatally injured. It seems that Mr Moore, who has charge of the blasting had as usual charged a deep hole drilled in the hard rock for the purpose of springing it—that is to clear the hole of gravel and water to prepare it for the usual charge of powder necessary to blast the rock. It would appear that in the lower part of the hole drilled which was ten or twelve feet deep, there was a layer of coal or some other kind of soft stone, and when the fuse was started for the purpose of springing as above, the whole charge was ejected through this soft stone as if discharged through the mouth of a cannon, and the rocks, instead of rising perpendicularly as usual, were forced out horizontally and in a straight direction toward a gang of thirty or forty men who were working in the deep hole. Immediately 12 or 15 men were leveled with the earth, and it is most miraculous that none were killed outright. A panic ensued amongst the Chinamen who were unhurt, and they became so excited that they even seized their picks and made for the foreman (who, by the way, was not to be blamed, as it was one of those unaccountable accidents that could not be foreseen) and would have assaulted him seriously had not he and one or two others shown a bold front. Two Chinamen and a white man are very seriously hurt and in the care of Dr Barclay. The company have ordered that every care should be taken of those injured, and they are properly cared for.

POLITICAL NEWS

Out of 400 armorers employed at Springfield Mass only two are known to be in favor of Greeley and Brown.

The New York Financier, a commercial paper of Democratic tendencies fears Greeley's financial crotchets. It does not believe the country can afford to elect him.

On the 20th July the Dubuque (Iowa) Times published a call for a Grant and Wilson Club which was signed by six hundred persons many of them old and well known Democrats.

Brick Pomeroy says that his Democrat reaches 200,000 readers. The prevailing sentiment among them is against Greeley. Pomeroy says he has received 2 000 letters to this effect. He will not support Greeley in any event.

Wendell Phillips, it is said, will heartily support Grant. If Mr Wilson be elected Vice President and Gen Butler be made Governor of Massachusetts both of which events are likely to happen Mr Phillips is not unlikely to obtain a seat in the U S Senate.

Gen Gideon J Pillow says the negro vote of the South so far as he has been able to test it, is solid for Grant. As for himself he has placed himself with Mosby, Duncan, Wise and scores of others in unyielding opposition to Greeley, no matter in what shape he appears.

The Chicago Times (Dem.) says that the corrupt bargain and sale at Baltimore places no Democrat under smallest obligation to support the grantee in that infamous transaction which has inaugurated the most shameful political contest this continent has ever witnessed.

The Democrats of Bangor Maine promised a Liberal Republican club of 200 men. Much talk was made and much exertion but when the list was published it contained fifteen names all of them Democrats appended to a call for a liberal club with the Republicans omitted.

The Welsh paper at Utica N Y Y Drych which the Tribune falsely claimed as for Greeley is unhesitatingly for Grant who it says in war time was heroic and aggressive and in peace is considerate toward us and safe. Greeley's most devoted admirer would not venture to apply these epithets to him.

Nine tenths of the stories of Republican accessions to Greeley are totally untrue. It is so in Oregon and so at the East. For instance the Binghamton N J Republican says: "In a recent trip through several counties tremendous stories of Greeley's strength came to us that in every case on inquiry, proved to be untrue. Some of our own prominent men even whose political standing we know and who are sound Republicans for Grant were given to us as instance of Greeley strength."

A Confederate Leader on Grant

The Chattanooga (Tenn.) Herald publishes the following extract from a private letter written by an eminent ex Confederate General of Virginia to the editor of that journal:

I have felt and do feel great satisfaction that my course is approved by such as you. I act to-day makes me more zealous in General Grant's behalf. Gross injustice is done him by a number of the old Confederates not so much by those who fought but by those whose occupation it was during the war as it is now to abuse Yankees while at a safe distance from them. Reflecting that but for his magnanimity scores of our bravest and best men might and probably would have been executed and a gulf would have thereby been dug 'twixt North and South so wide and deep that ages could not have filled it up. I do not see or understand why he is not ardently supported by most of the true and brave men in the South.

And now Georgia is said to be likely to go Republican. A H Stephens and Robert Toombs, both representative Democrats refuse to support Greeley. The Savannah News [illegible] declares that thousands of Georgia Democrats will not go to the polls.

I tried nearly every remedy [illegible] but [illegible] nothing seemed to do me any good. [illegible] I was advised by Judge J Johns [illegible] your UNK WEED REMEDY. I procured one bottle and was entirely cured. For six weeks before taking the UNK Weed I was compelled to go upon crutches. I consider your remedy a great blessing to afflicting humanity and consider it my duty to inform all Rheumatics of its great virtues.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR FURNISHING TRUSSES to disabled soldiers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That every soldier of the Union Army who was ruptured while in the line of duty, during the late war for the [illegible] of the rebellion, shall be entitled to receive a single or double truss of such style as may be designated by the Surgeon General of the United States Army as the best suited for such disability.

Sec. 2. The application for such truss shall be made by the ruptured soldier to an examining surgeon for [illegible], whose duty it shall be to examine such applicant, and for every such applicant, found to have a rupture or hernia, shall prepare and forward to the Surgeon General an application for such truss without charge to the soldier.

Sec. 3. That the Surgeon General of the United States Army is hereby authorized and directed to purchase and procure the number of trusses which may be required for distribution to such disabled soldiers at a price not [illegible] than the same are sold to the trade at wholesale, and the cost of the same shall be paid upon the requisition of the Surgeon General out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Approved May 28 1872.

EXTRACT FROM REPORT OF A BOARD OF MEDICAL OFFICERS CONVENED TO EXAMINE SAMPLES OF TRUSSES.

* * The Board is of the opinion that the above principles (viz. those which belong to a proper Truss) are best carried out by the Trusses [illegible] of which were submitted by Messrs Bartlett, [illegible] & Parker of Chicago and by the well known Chase's Truss (made by several firms). [illegible] These patterns are therefore recommended by the Board, as those best adapted in their opinion for the [illegible] indicated in the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for furnishing Trusses, etc."

WAR DEPARTMENT,
SURGEON GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington D C July 11, 1872

The above recommendation of the Board of Medical Officers with regard to Trusses is approved, and any person entitled under the Act to receive a Truss, will be furnished with either of the patterns of Truss recommended by the Board as he may select.

The proof that a soldier was ruptured in the line of duty will be must of the fact that he is receiving a pension either wholly or in part on account of the rupture—[illegible] to procure such pension.

Blank forms for applications for Trusses will be furnished of the Surgeon General's Office and by examining surgeons [illegible].

WEDNESDAY MORNING JULY 31 1872

CITY.

WALLAMET BRIDGE.—We called yesterday at the office of the Wallamet Bridge Company and inspected the plans for the proposed bridge across the river at this city which have just been completed. The plans have been drawn in a fine and artistic manner and the bridge when completed, will combine all the modern improvements known to the science of engineering. It will without doubt be the most stupendous structure of the kind on the coast. This proposed bridge when ready for the accommodation of the public will be a lasting monument to the credit of the [illegible], a source of great revenue to the Company which have undertaken the contract, will confer lasting benefits to the county on both sides of the river and besides, will be an achievement of civil engineering of which our State can feel justly proud. The exact amount of advantages to accrue to this city by the construction of such a substantial improvement cannot be estimated. These benefits can never be decreased so long as the city increases in wealth, population and importance but will rather grow in a relative proportion. If a bridge like the proposed one is of such great, vital importance to the growing future of a city of ten thousand population, how much greater will it be if Portland attained fifty thousand inhabitants. As the future of this city is a fact so well recognized and established, the importance of such contemplated improvements must necessarily become [illegible] in its advantages to Portland in its rapid strides in the acquisition of wealth and population.

The bridge will rest securely on eight piers [illegible] into seven spans, each of 200 feet. The "draw" will be in length 275 feet and worked by [illegible]. It will operate similarly to the common "turn table" on railroads, except the dimensions will be so much greater, and steam will be substituted in place of human hands. In the center of the "draw" is to be built up an immensely strong [illegible], on which the "draw" will rest and revolve. A small steam boiler and engine will be placed on the top of the "draw," connecting with machinery below, by which it can be swung around whenever necessary. During the low stages of water ordinary river steamers can pass under it at any place, and the "draw" will not necessarily be [illegible] into requisition, except at high stages. [illegible] a sailing vessel of any size desire to [illegible] beyond the bridge, the draw can be [illegible] around in a few minutes and [illegible] pass on either side of the central pier. On the west side of the river the approach will [illegible] of 100 feet of substantial roadway ending at a solid stone abutment, on which will rest the [illegible] end of the main structure. The east side [illegible] consists of 600 feet of trestle work, which spans the lowlands on that side of the stream, above the high water mark, commencing on the hill and terminating with the stone abutment at that end of the bridge. The piers on which the bridge will rest, are all of the latest and most improved construction, somewhat diamond shaped, with the points up and down the river protected from driftwood, etc., by being lined on the outside with powerful boiler iron. The entire width of the bridge will be 30 feet and the roadway in the clear 15 feet for the passage of vehicles etc. On each side will be walks about 7 feet wide for the use and accommodation of pedestrians. Nicholson pavement of the best quality will cover the entire floor of the bridge. Along at intervals—three on each side and six in all—will be constructed small buildings which will project over the stream beyond the line of the bridge. These buildings, or way stands will be leased to parties who may desire to vend coffee, cakes, refreshments, etc., but no saloons will be allowed. Seats in abundance will also be provided along at convenient distances for pedestrians to rest themselves or for the accommodation of evening promenaders who may wish to avail themselves of a view of the shipping or enjoy the air and scenery.

The plans are about completed and will be submitted to the City Council one week from this evening for the approval of that body or its rejection.

UNSAFE AWNINGS.—A casual observation of the wood awnings about the city is sufficient to impress one with the idea of their general insecure, [illegible] and in some [illegible] absolutely dangerous condition. This will apply directly to wooden awnings, supported by wooden posts. When awnings are constructed [illegible] have the lower end of the posts, instead of being sunk into the planks composing the sidewalks, or in some way securely [illegible] to them, are held to their perpendicular position only by a few nails driven diagonally through the lower end and into the walks. This mode of fastening the braces it will be perceived at a glance is uncertain and not at all permanent. The nails soon rust by exposure, or are torn from their fastenings by some accident. Runaway [illegible] colliding with awning posts, and hitching horses to them, which occasionally conclude to leave on short notice and take the support along, are among the most prolific causes of our insecure awnings. Another reason is, that too few posts are placed under the roofs to hold them up in the case of heavy snows. Should several persons even venture on many of such frail structures, they would jeopardize their limbs and perhaps their lives. In many instances along the streets, but three slender and indifferently secured posts support twenty, twenty five, or even thirty feet of heavy wooden awnings. The posts often are only scantlings about 4x6 inches. Frequently the posts are slipped beyond the vertical position, some having an inclination of 50 or 60 degrees towards the horizon, and held only by a few old corroded nails. Again the rafters in other places are sprung or fractured by the weight and threaten to descend on the heads of any unsuspecting pedestrian without the slightest warning or the least provocation. In view of the condition of the awnings in front of numerous old wooden [illegible] on Front and First streets, under which crowds are hourly passing to and fro it seems strange that serious or fatal accidents do not occur more frequently. All who feel a lively concern for the top of their craniums or regard [illegible] limbs and broken bones with anything but [illegible] of calm complacency, must admit that the above is no exaggeration of the present condition of the awnings. Without disguise, many of them are unsafe and should be regarded by the public as an unsafe sidewalk or bridge, and the same means should be employed to remedy the existing danger.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A boarder at one of the hotels of the city concluded a few days ago to shuffle off this mortal coil, and experiment on the realities of the unknown. For several days the landlord had observed that this man appeared laboring under some severe mental depression and at times seemed slightly deranged, but he took no more notice of the individual. On Sunday he appeared unusually low spirited. At noon he came in a little late, took his seat at the table and ate a very hearty meal. At its conclusion he arose and retired to his room. About two o'clock the landlord's attention was attracted as if some one was violently retching and trying to vomit. He went to the room and found the individual deathly sick and apparently suffering great physical agony. He was assisted to the back yard where he threw up all the food he had on his stomach. In his room was found after a careful examination, a paper box labeled morphine. The would be suicide then confessed to the landlord that he had purchased the drug with the object of self destruction, that soon after eating his dinner he had swallowed all the contents of the box (enough to kill half a dozen men) and laid down [illegible] soon to be locked in the embraces of a [illegible] more profound than Morpheus, and which knows no wakening. In the course of about an hour and a half he was aroused by an intensely sick feeling, which resulted as we have stated. The escape was very narrow. If he had taken but a moderate quantity of the poison death would inevitably have followed. No effort would have been made to use a stomach pump as no one knew that self murder was meditated.

HOUSE BREAKING.—Some persons who preferred to effect an entrance through the window of Mr Moffatt's house instead of the door night before last, for fear of disturbing the quiet slumbers of the inmates, were interrupted in their little pastime. About two o'clock Monday morning Mrs Moffatt was awakened by some suspicious noises as she thought. She arose, lighted a candle, and proceeded to reconnoiter the premises. Her efforts to discover the cause of the disturbance were unrewarded. Everything was as silent as the grave and nothing was seen to arouse the further suspicions of the lady. The next morning it was discovered that some persons had sawn off the ends of two or three slats of the window blinds, as an initiatory step towards raising the sash. They aroused the lady of the house by the noise, and the light frightened them causing an abandonment of the effort, and a precipitate retreat.

A CONVENIENCE.—W H Harris, Esq, County Clerk, has made an arrangement which renders the making of change in payment of costs or Clerk's fees in the office a very easy matter, and at the same time has put in circulation a new kind of stamps among the legal fraternity in this city. This is by means of stamps which Mr Harris has had printed, of the denomination of fifteen cents, which can be purchased in any quantities and thus avoid the necessity and trouble of having to make change of such a small amount.

POLICE INCREASED.—We learn that four additional men have been appointed as policemen by the Commissioners. These men are to patrol the back streets of the city. It appears that the appointments came rather tardily but are certainly better late than never. This increase will supply a deficiency in the present force which has long existed, and will we think give general satisfaction. If no other good results from it the sense of security of person and property will be increased.

RELIGIOUS MEETING.—On the 19th of last April the annual meeting of the Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran Society was to have been held in this city but owing to a very sparse attendance of the members the meeting was temporarily adjourned. We are requested to state that an adjourned meeting of the Society will be held at the office of Messrs Hurgren & Shindler to day to commence at 8 o clock P M.

SMALLPOX.—The scare about the smallpox in this city has become a thing of the past. A case has not been reported here for about a month. So far as heard from there is not a case in the State. We hear however that within the last few days several cases have been reported in the vicinity of Lake River, Washington Territory. Every possible precaution is being taken to prevent its spread.

FINE TIMOTHY.—We have received a cedar box containing a number of fine stalks, raised on the farm of Mr C M Stark, on Deep river, Pacific county, Washington Territory. This grass is between six and seven feet in length, and is among the finest specimens we have yet seen. Mr Stark has a piece of meadow containing three acres the average height of which is 5 feet and 8 inches.

POLICE COURT.—Three cases of drunks and disorderlies were disposed of yesterday by fines and imprisonment, in the Police Court. W F Weiland was arraigned on a charge of having assaulted a Chinaman with a knife and cut off one of his fingers. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $10 and costs. The case of the State vs Jas F Smith was dismissed.

LEG BROKEN.—William Mahoney, a steward on the California while attempting to reach the steamer from the dock by a narrow plank, on Monday evening, slipped and fell on the wharf. One of his legs was broken by the fall. Mahoney was removed to the East Portland hospital and a physician summoned, who dressed the limb.

PERSONAL.—Hon J B Underwood, U S Postal Agent, arrived in this city last evening on the Dalles boat. He came from Kelton via Boise City and Umatilla. Mr Underwood has been at the former place to make arrangements to divide the mails and have them come by way of Sacramento to Portland and the other valley offices.

PROPELLER BROKEN.—On beaching the steamer Geo S Wright, at Astoria, it was found that her propeller was broken. The extent of damages can not be ascertained yet. She is lying "high and dry" at Astoria, and the damages being repaired as far as possible. A new propeller may probably have to be cast.

BROKEN.—The steamer Mary Bell was passed yesterday morning above Walker's Island. She was disabled and unable to proceed in consequence of one of her crank pins being broken. The damage will probably be repaired and the steamer reach the city to-day.

INSPECTION.—The Washington Guard are to have an inspection of clothing and accouterments at the armory this evening. It is requested that members of that organization govern themselves accordingly.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—There has been issued from the County Clerk's office during the present month, nineteen marriage licenses. During the previous month thirteen were issued.

ASTORIA AND OYSTERVILLE

Our special Astoria correspondent under date of July 29th, writes:

Having "done" Clatsop, Astoria, and the surrounding country, I concluded to visit Shoalwater Bay. So last Saturday, at 7 30 o'clock, I embarked on the Varuna, and in an hour and ten minutes was landed in front of the "Bay View House," in Baker's Bay. This house is kept by J H Stout, Esq.—a large and commodious, newly furnished, and supports a sumptuous table. About the place are many pleasant walks and romantic views, while the advantage for sea bathing, hunting and fishing, are elegant. The house fronts on the bay and commands a view of the mouth of the Columbia and the surrounding country. After lunch, took stage for Oysterville, 20 miles distant. The first mile and a fourth is across the peninsula through one of those stupendous forests of spruce and hemlock that never cease to be a wonder. Then we strike the "North Beach." Just at the beach, in an immense cave in the overhanging cliff of rock, is a couple of Portlanders encamped seasiding and fishing. The fishing on the "Point of Rocks" near by is splendid. The beach from here to the mouth of Shoalwater Bay, 20 miles, is as straight as a bee line and seems like an endless road walled in on one side by a sand bank (the sea ridge) and on the other by the long lines of white breakers stretching out as far as the eye can reach. The beach is so smooth that one can scarcely feel the motion of the stage. An occasional long legged pelican or cloud of seagulls or flock of sand snipe is about all one sees to vary the scenery, except now and then a farm house standing upon the long narrow prairie that stretches along the beach. After a delightful drive of three hours and twenty minutes we reached Oysterville, standing upon the shore of Shoalwater Bay, with its fleet of beautiful sail boats anchored in front of the village. The place has grown some since I was here six years ago.

The hotel accommodations are good. The tables are supplied with oysters at every meal in any style desired.

On my return I visited Cape Disappointment and found the Lighthouse, batteries, quarters and all the buildings looking bright and clean, indicating careful attention.

While here a party of excursionists arrived from Astoria. After strolling over the Cape for a few hours amid scenery of which one never tires we took the Varuna for Astoria. We kept up the North shore of the river past the historic village of Chinook, touched at Cementville, and reached Astoria at 4 o'clock this evening. The trip to Shoalwater Bay costs about the same as to the Summer House and is a very pleasant one.

The brig Perpetua is loading with lumber at Cementville.

The steamer Geo S Wright is still on the beach.

Weather is fine after the showers of yesterday.

Revolutions Never Go Backward.

The philosophical theory that the human system when weakened by disease, oppressive heat, excessive labor, or any other cause, should be toned and invigorated instead of being subjected to the depleting drugs is gaining ground every day. The introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters twenty years ago gave a powerful influence to this common sense idea. As the extraordinary efficacy of the Great Vegetable Restorative became known, multitudes of debilitated invalids turned with loathing from the nauseous and strength destroying potions with which it was then the fashion to drench the sick, to this renovating, appetizing, vitalizing preparation, derived from the finest roots, herbs and barks placed by botanical research at the disposal of medical science. Revolutions never go backward. From that time to the present the importance of assisting and reinforcing nature in her struggles with disease has been more and more widely and keenly appreciated by the sick and the suffering. In tens of thousands of households Hostetter's Bitters are looked upon as the one thing needful in cases of Dyspepsia, General Debility, Constipation, Nervous Weakness, Chills and Fever, Bilious Affections and all conditions of the body and mind that betoken a lack of vital energy. When the quicksilver ranges high and the solid flesh [illegible] under the fervid temperature this [illegible] tonic is the best possible safeguard against all the disorders generated by a sultry and unwholesome atmosphere. It prevents and relieves lassitude and languor, and enables the system to endure with impunity an unusual amount of exertion. Of all invigorating and regulating medicines it is the purest and most wholesome.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates tropical, temperate or frigid it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Kitty.

Kneeling by the stream, I saw
  Kate, the farmer's daughter,
Drinking in her rosy palm,
  Dipping up the water.

She had thrown her hat aside,
  Bare were arm and shoulder,
Such unconscious charm displayed
  Made my love the bolder.

So I slowly, tenderly,
  Went and knelt beside her,
Drank with her from out the stream—
  Blushing Kitty Ryder.

And I said, "The poets tell us
  Life is like a river;
Shall we not its waters sweet
  Always drink together?"

Many years have passed us by,
  Like the flowing water;
But I drink life's stream to-day
  With Kate, the farmer's daughter.

Gold Bluffs and Beaches.

The following paragraphs are from an article in the San Francisco Commercial Herald, and will be found to possess interest:

For a year or two there had been growing rumors of new and extensive discoveries in that quarter, to some of which was assigned such grave importance as to induce parties here to construct a sub-marine apparatus, and fit out a vessel for the purpose of collecting the auriferous sand, supposed to exist at favorable localities beneath the water a little way from shore. This vessel will soon sail for its point of destination, somewhere in the vicinity of Gold Bluff, where it is to be anchored just outside the surf, this having been found by previous examination to be the line of the richest deposits, the gold here being too coarse to be carried up by the surging waters and left on the strand, as happens with the lighter particles. This company, who have expended large sums in preparing for operations, claim to have examined the ground with care, and to be acting on a safe basis. Their mode of procedure consists in first prospecting the bottom with a diving-bell, when, a suitable place for work having been fixed upon, the gold-bearing sand is to be brought to the surface through a flexible tube by the power of suction. From this sand it is proposed to separate the gold by washing through a sluice rigged on deck, salt water being used for the purpose.

Within the past few weeks other parties from San Francisco having visited certain of the [illegible] in the vicinity of Port Orford [illegible] being a short distance inland, and [illegible] was once a shore line. They [illegible] the stratum of auriferous material here to vary from two to six feet in thickness, running [illegible] under the sand-hills a distance of several hundred feet, and extending for miles up and down the coast. It can be reached and gotten only by tunneling—a tedious and costly method of extraction, the ground being full of water, necessitating much heavy timbering. Nor is it everywhere that the sand will pay for working, this point having to be determined by careful prospecting. The surrounding country is covered with heavy forests, and, what is worse, everywhere obstructed by a dense undergrowth and immense masses of fallen timber, through which trails have been cut with great labor. This party, after purchasing some claims and starting a tunnel, have returned to the city, favorably impressed though not over sanguine, with the prospects in this new field of labor.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, July 30, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114¾.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87c buying, 88 selling.

The [illegible] Mile Bend arrived here from Tillamook on Monday evening. She brought the following freight: 10,000 feet cedar lumber; 2,000 staves; 50 sks [illegible]; 10 bags [illegible]; 1,000 lbs wool.

The steamship California cleared for Victoria this afternoon with the following freight: 1,967 qr sks Flour; 305 sks Wheat; 97 sks Bran; 5 pkgs Agricultural Machinery; 8 pkgs Household Goods; 2 kegs dried Apples; 3 [illegible] and [illegible]; 1 cs Lard; 1 cs Leather.

The [illegible], John L. Stephens, [illegible] this port last [illegible] from San Francisco with a large number of passengers and 550 tons of assorted cargo.

The bark Jane A. Falkinburg was towed down the river Monday morning. She went to Rainier, at which point she will load with Lumber and Salmon for Honolulu.

The bark [illegible] was towed yesterday evening down to [illegible], where she will load with Lumber for San Francisco.

Reports of an active harvest season now come to us from all parts of the State. The yield of Wheat is much beyond what was expected six weeks ago. In many counties harvest hands are very scarce, and the progress of harvest is thereby delayed. New Wheat in large quantities may shortly be expected in this market. In Washington county considerable quantities have already been threshed. The surplus of the State may be reckoned at nearly 3,000,000 bushels.

It has often been remarked, but yet not often enough, that the great want of Oregon is an increase of productive industry. Greater diversification of pursuits and employments is absolutely essential. Our single industry is the production of grain. To adhere to this and not to enlarge the field of industry, is to go in swaddling bands all our days. We manufacture almost nothing. What we want to do is to show capitalists that here is a field where manufacturing industries can be started and prosecuted successfully. A thousand branches of this industry can be opened with profit here. The production of leather and its manufacture into Boots and Shoes, the smelting of Iron and its conversion into forms for use, the construction of machinery, the manufacture of Wagons and Agricultural Implements, the increased production and manufacture of Wool,—all these and numerous other industries wait for development. Until they are developed to a greater degree than now we shall have little real progress and no substantial prosperity.

Of Sugar the San Francisco Commercial Herald says: Judging from what we have already received, and now know to be en route or ordered for this market, it will be safe to estimate the total imports of Sugar for 1873 at eighty millions of pounds, against fifty million pounds imported in 1872. At the high prices ruling last year for the refined product, the Beet-Sugar interest on this coast is said to have been profitable; but with an increased home product, and a large increase of imports and the [illegible] lower prices for the refined product, we fail to see where this year's profits on Beet-Sugar are to come from. The prices now paid in this market for low grades for refining purposes cannot but fail to return a considerable loss to the shippers, while at the same time A 1 grocery grades from the [illegible] yield a [illegible] profit; but how long this state of things will continue, it is impossible to say, as the cargo [illegible] now afloat was [illegible] expressly for the manufacture of Yellow Coffee Sugars, which for some months past have been in scant supply, and commanding high prices in proportion to rates charged for White Refined.

Of [illegible] a leading financial journal of New York says: "So far as Mr. Boutwell conveniently can, he is accumulating currency in this dull season when it is so abundant; and if the necessities of the Treasury permit, he will doubtless continue to act on this policy until the fall, when, by disbursing the accumulated stores of greenbacks, he will be able to impart some elasticity to the volume of the currency at the time when that expansion is demanded by the autumn revival of business, and is not otherwise provided for under our faulty financial system.

"If Mr. Boutwell is able to carry out this plan it will tend to preserve the equilibrium of the loan market in October and November, and thus to prevent monetary stringency from injuring business, which is, we presume, one of the objects he has in view in accumulating currency in the vaults of the Treasury."

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, IN CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 5, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872 again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its ascendancy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time; has suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity it criminally punished no man for political offenses and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It initiated a new policy toward the Indians; the Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion; the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers; immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency, it has provided for the National credit, and sustained it under the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rate of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during U. S. Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system, by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolists, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the time of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom; their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of asserting constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

Has revived many a dull business;
Has rescued many a lost business;

GIRARD'S SECRET.—Stephen Girard used to say in his old age, "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well as the brisk, long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales that I otherwise would have lost."

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in a registered letter through the Postoffice, or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly [illegible] of San Francisco and other places, are [illegible] and [illegible] too lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible], shoemakers, newspaper carriers, [illegible] etc. The only way to avoid [illegible] is to [illegible] inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as [illegible] in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, [illegible]. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy [illegible] who may call at his office of his ability to treat [illegible] that he promises to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultation FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
